

2021 FALL PRESIDENT'S AWARDS RECIPIENTS

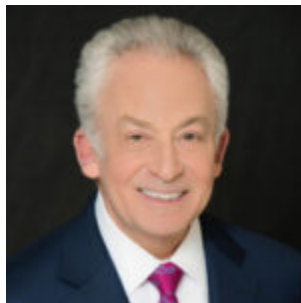

William F. Anzalone, Anzalone Law Offices, LLC, Wilkes-Barre, PA

For reinvigorating the Luzerne County Bar Association, developing a campaign to improve the image of lawyers through billboard and television ads and founding the Northeast Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Advocacy organization.

Jeffrey A. Burns, Dollar Burns & Becker, Kansas City, MO

For thirty years of fighting to improve truck safety on our nation's highways through advocating for regulatory and legislative changes and for serving on the Transportation Research Board's Truck and Safety Committee for almost a decade.

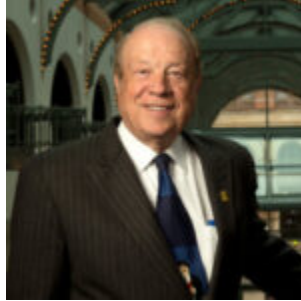

Alan M. Feldman, Feldman Shepherd Wohlgerlinter Tanner Weinstock, Philadelphia, PA

For identifying that fatal dresser tip overs were not the fault of parents, but of unstable and unsafe storage furniture; and through significant global settlements created an agreement with the manufacturer beginning in 2016, they would only sell dressers in the US that meets or exceeds the volunteer safety standards.

Joseph Fried, Fried Goldberg LLC, Atlanta, GA

For co-founding the Academy of Truck Accident Attorneys, a national organization, to provide legal education and advocacy for truck accident attorneys; and for partnering with the NBTA to create national board certification in Truck Accident Law; and for continued recruitment of attorneys to become board certified Truck Accident attorney

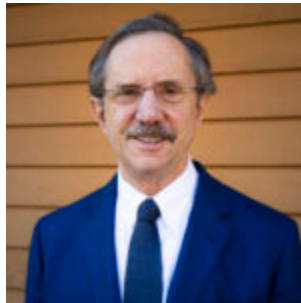

Michael F. Hupy, Hupy and Abraham, S.C., Milwaukee, WI

For giving back to his community through safety initiatives such as serving as President of Crime Stoppers who engage media, the public and law enforcement to solve crimes and providing financial support of rewards.

William G. Jungbauer, Yaeger & Jungbauer, Barristers, Saint Paul, MN

For seeking, advocating, and acquiring the passage of a federal law to protect railroad whistleblowers and railroad workers in cases of accidents, injuries and from harassment.

James Leach, James D. Leach Attorney at Law, Rapid City, SD

For pro bono defending drug suspects who in some South Dakota's police custody were taken to medical clinics to be physically restrained to have a urine sample taken by forced catheterization; and through a successful trial found this practice to be unconstitutional; and through this outcome has stopped this practice.

Mark S. Mandell, Mandell, Boisclair & Mandell, Ltd., Providence, RI

For inspiring local attorneys to become engaged in their communities in meaningful ways; and for serving as a community advocate for the less fortunate; and for ensuring children have clothing for school.

Alice O' Sullivan, Brookings, OR

For establishing, developing, and leading NBTA Community Engagement initiatives that included women's health issues and support and wellbeing of children in the foster care program.

Mel C. Orchard, III, The Spence Law Firm, LLC, Jackson, WY

For a commitment to lawyer education through serving on faculties of The Trial Lawyers College and the Trial School; and as a presenter at national CLE's; and in service to legal organizations devoted to preserving access to the courts and trial by jury.

Nicholas E. Phillips, Phillips & Mille Co, LPA, Middleburg Heights, OH

For serving his community the past twenty years by hosting a radio program entitled The Advocate that focuses on critical issues that are important locally; and through the founding of a local Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) for disaster preparedness.